WACD emeritus Don Cosentino in New Orleans, after he delivered the "Don Yoder Memorial Lecture" to the Religious Studies Section of the American Folklore Society Meetings, October 25, 2012.

Title of his lecture: "Why Did Gede Let This Happen: Catastrophe and Theodicy in 21st Century Haitian Vodou."

From left to right: all UCLA folklore grads, with the current affiliation -

Don Cosentino with --Ysamur Flores-Peña (Otis), Robert Glenn Howard (University of Wisconsin, Madison), Patrick A. Polk (UCLA), Kerry Noonan (Champlain College), Carol Branch (Otis), Stephen Wehmeyer (Champlain College), Pravina Shukla (Indiana University), and Daniel Wojcik (University of Oregon)